

TE KUNENGA | MASSEY
KI PŪREHUROA | UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY OF NEW ZEALAND

Week 2: Theories and Theoretical Perspectives of Human Development

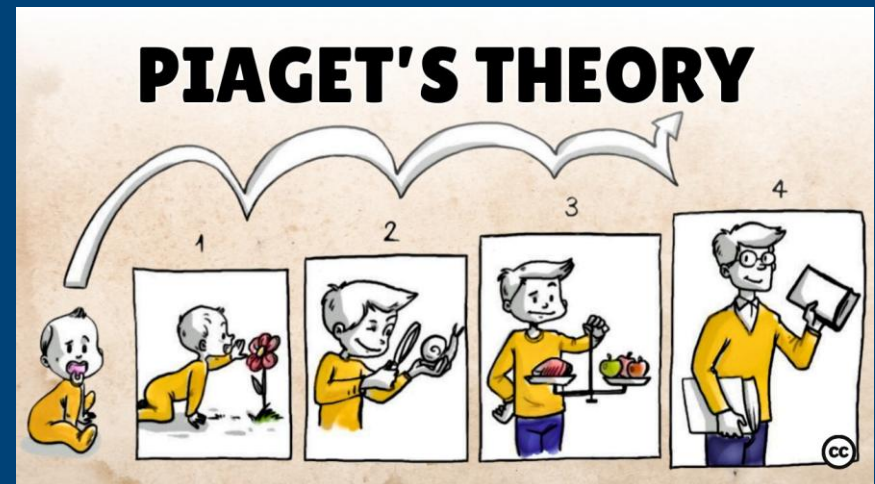

Erikson's psychosocial theory

- Stage-like theory of development proposing eight stages of psychosocial development across the lifespan
 - Key terms include...
 - Psychosocial crisis
 - 'virtue'/ego strength
 - Core pathology
- ...The Newman and Newman (2016) reading!!

Piaget's theory

- A constructivist theory of cognitive development
- Four stages of cognitive development (look out for these)
- Some key concepts of this theory include...
 - Accommodation
 - Assimilation
 - Equilibrium

Vygotsky's theory

A theory of sociocultural cognitive development

Some key concepts to look out for...

- Elementary mental functions > higher mental functions
- Zone of proximal development
- Scaffolding

...and other theories too!!

- Information Processing Theory
- Behaviourism
- Bandura's social cognitive theory
- Ethology and attachment theory

Remember to look out for the key principles and concepts that underpin each theory.